

RESOLUTION NO. 2024/2025-

WHEREAS, Section 893.165(6), Florida Statutes, states that in order to receive assistance grants from the County Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Trust Fund, county alcohol and other drug abuse prevention, treatments, or education programs shall be designated by the Board of County Commissioners as the chosen program recipients; and,

WHEREAS, Section 893.165(6), Florida Statutes, stipulates that recipient designations shall be made annually, based on success of the program; and,

WHEREAS, an alcohol and drug abuse treatment or education program recipient shall, in seeking assistance grants from the County Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Trust Fund, provide the Board of County Commissioners with detailed financial information and requests for expenditures; and,

WHEREAS, the Clay Behavioral Health Center, Inc., has notified the Clay County Board of County Commissioners that the Center meets the Department of Children and Families criteria for designation as the recipient of funds from the Clay County Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Trust Fund; and,

WHEREAS, the Clay County Board of County Commissioners Fiscal Year 2025-2026 Tentative Budget appropriates County Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Trust Fund dollars in combination with transfers from other County funds, totaling $350,000 and,

WHEREAS, Clay County is negotiating a contract for services with Clay Behavioral Health Center, Inc. for Fiscal Year 2025-2026 at a cost of $350,000.

THEREFORE, pursuant to Section 893.165(6) of the Florida Statutes, let it be resolved that the Clay Behavioral Health Center, Inc. be designated as the recipient of the County Alcohol and Drug Abuse Trust Fund for Fiscal Year 2025-2026.

DULY ADOPTED at a public hearing this 9th day of September, 2025.
